

GARY'S FOUNDATION

Made Possible Through Gary's Foundation Fund

Gary's Foundation Scholarships are primary needs based with an emphasis on single parent children.

Investing in the future of children attending school in Sweetwater County.

Providing opportunities for individual students to access college scholastic opportunities they may otherwise not be able to enjoy.

The funds may be used for college, technical or other trade school.

HONORING GARY COLLINS

2.25.82 - 2.1.21

Gary Collins was product of a single parent family. He worked very hard throughout school and his career and became very successful.

He attended schools in Green River, Wyoming and was a 2000 graduate of Green River High School. Gary also attended Western Wyoming Community College. Gary was talented in graphic design; he designed several websites for local businesses.

Mr. Collins was an Owner/Operator of SweetwaterNOW for the last eight years of his life. He created a prosperous business and SweetwaterNOW is the result of Gary's creativity, ambition, and entrepreneurial vision.

Gary loved Sweetwater County and the people that live here. He poured his heart into his community, serving on numerous boards and actively participating in community projects and activities. Hopefully the scholarship recipients will carry on his legacy.
